Scholarships for Military Children Program Opens

Deca News Release

Scholarships for Military Children program for 2007 is now open. Applications for the $1,500 scholarships are available at 264 commissaries worldwide, or can be downloaded through links at <http://www.commissaries.com>, <http://www.militaryscholar.org>, or <http://www.dodea.edu>

The $1,500 scholarships are available for children of military active-duty, retired, and Guard and Reserve service members. Most of the funds are donated by manufacturers, brokers and suppliers selling groceries in commissaries, and every dollar donated to the program by industry or the general public goes to fund the scholarships. The program is administered by the Fisher House Foundation.

A significant number of scholarships, about 10 percent every year, go to high school students at DoD schools overseas.

Applications for 2007, which includes an essay on "how and why" the applicant would change an historical event, must be turned in at a commissary by close of business on Feb. 21, 2007. At least one $1,500 scholarship will be awarded at every commissary location with qualified applicants.

The program is open to unmarried children under the age of 21 (23 if enrolled in school) of military active-duty, Reserve, Guard and retired personnel. Eligibility will be determined using the Defense Enrollment Eligibility Reporting System database. Applicants should ensure that they, as well as their sponsor, are enrolled in the DEERS database and have a current ID card. The applicant must be planning to attend, or already attending, an accredited college or university full-time in the fall term of 2007, or enrolled in a program of studies designed to transfer directly into a four-year program.

Could This Be the First Day of Your Life Without Tobacco?

Are you thinking about quitting smoking but not sure you're ready to take the plunge? The Great American Smokeout may be for you. The 30th Annual Great American Smoke is Thursday, November 16. It's an opportunity to join with literally millions (45.8 to be exact) of other smokers in saying "no thanks" to cigarettes for 24 hours.

Join the Great American Smokeout! Thursday, November 16, 2006. American Cancer Society.

Tips for Quitting

- On a 3 x 5 card, make a list of what you like and dislike about smoking. Add to it and read it daily.
- Make up a short list of luxuries you have wanted or items you would like to purchase for a loved one. Next to each item write down the cost. Now convert the cost to "packs of cigarettes." If you save the money each day from packs of cigarettes, you will be able to purchase these items. Use a special "piggy" bank for saving your money or start a "Christmas Club" account at your bank.

- Never smoke after you get a craving for a cigarette until three minutes have passed since you got the urge. During that three minutes change your thinking or activity. Telephone an ex-smoker or somebody you can talk to until the craving subsides.
- Plan a memorable date for stopping. You might choose your vacation, New Year's Day, your birthday, a holiday, the birthday of your child, your anniversary. But, don't make the date so distant that you lose momentum.
- Each day try to put off lighting your first cigarette. If you have a sudden craving for a cigarette, take ten deep breaths, holding the last breath while you strike a match. Exhale slowly, blowing out the match. Pretend the match was a cigarette by crushing it out in an ashtray. Now immediately get busy on some work or activity.
- After you quit, start using your lungs. Increase your activities and indulge in moderate exercise, such as short walks.
- If you gain weight because you are not smoking, wait until you get over the craving before you diet. Dieting is easier then.
- Get out of old habits. Seek new activities or perform old activities in a new way.
- Frequent places you can't smoke, such as libraries, buses, theaters, swimming pools, department stores or just going to bed during the first weeks you are off cigarettes.
- Give yourself time to think and get fit by walking 1/2 hour each day.

Need more than just a few tips to help you quit?

Christmas Market Time is Here!

As the Holiday season approaches, Germany reveals its most atmospheric side. Over 2,500 Christmas markets in wonderful settings invite you to share in the joy of the pre- Christmas season and enter into Germany's special festive mood.

Germany's Christmas markets are an old tradition that dates back as far as 1434. In those days, Christmas markets lasted no more than day or two and tended to confine themselves to the area around the main church. Nowadays, Christmas markets usually start before the first weekend of Advent (around the end of November) and go on until Christmas Eve or thereabouts. Some do not finish until the Epiphany on January 6. You can buy everything you need for Christmas here: candles, tree decorations, sweets, biscuits, baking tins and toys. Over time, each market develops a character of its own, influenced by its setting, regional traditions or particular specialities. Many Catholic churches are decorated with beautiful Nativity scenes during the festive season. Tours of different nativity scenes are especially popular in Bavaria.

Christmas markets in Germany's rural areas are no less attractive than those in larger towns and cities, though some only take place on weekends. Some of the closest and most popular markets Markets opening dates and time are listed here. Dates and times are subject to change. It is a good idea to contact the local tourist offices prior to your trip! This information was obtained from www.germany-tourism.de
